

AMICALOLA FALLS STATE PARK
PRESENTS:

WINGS OF FLIGHT

MAY 10-11, 2008

SATURDAY

9:00 a.m. PINECONE OWLS

Meet at the Visitor Center's Discovery Room for this fun craft. Create your very own little owl to take home with you.

11:00 a.m. FLIGHTHIKE

Meet at the Visitor Center and join a ranger as we hike to the base of the falls and note birds and insects in their winged splendor.

1:00 p.m. ON A WING & A PRAYER

Meet at the Lodge Lobby as wildlife rehabilitators discuss the magnificent birds they have helped return to the Georgia skies. Live birds of prey!

3:00 p.m. JUST BEE-CAUSE

Meet at the Visitor Center as BJ Weeks explains the life of a honey bee, how honey is made, and how bees help pollinate as he displays his live hive!

5:00 p.m.

OWL ALERT!

Camera opportunities abound as rangers and friends carry live owls through the park! Owl sightings are expected at the base of the falls, lodge, visitor center and the top of the falls locations. It's a hoot!

7:00 p.m.

WE'RE GOING BATTY

Meet at the Lower Lodge Lobby for a brief slideshow and bat chat. Learn how Vampire Bats are saving human lives, what foods we would lack if we didn't have bats, and just how many insects our native bats eat every night!

SUNDAY

11:00 a.m.

LIGHT AS A FEATHER

Meet at the Visitor Center Discovery Room to make paint brushes using duck feathers, then paint a masterpiece!

1:00 p.m.

FABULOUS FEATHERED FLYERS

Meet at the Lodge Lobby to meet some of our live birds and find out why those feathers are so important!

3:00 p.m.

MIGRATION MARATHON

Meet at the Visitor Center to discover just how hard it is to complete a migration. It's a game... but it's a learning experience for all ages as well.

BIRD BINGO

Meet at the Visitor Center Discovery Room for a new twist on an old game. Learn about songbirds, waterfowl, and raptors as you compete for prizes.

LEAVE NO TRACE

Please put litter in it's place!
